■ Developer NGDIVISION™ (■ Release Date January 26, 2017 ■ Price 800 yen ■ System Windows PC (Dedicated server available) ■ About NGDIVISION™ is an independent game development company based in Tokyo, Japan. It was founded in 2014. Its staff consists of six developers from around the world. With their existing experience in various genres, they decided to develop a fantasy role-playing game that can be played by everyone. It will be released in January 2017. How are we going to spread awareness about the game?

NGDIVISION™ will post a 10-minute teaser video and a 5-minute video after the release announcement. Jurgen Klopp watched his Liverpool side beat Everton 1-0 on Saturday with a cheeky joke that seemed to echo a message he is trying to send to his players this season. The German was quizzed on the title odds after the game as he makes a return to the dugout for the first time since February. The Liverpool manager refused to take a punt on whether he sees his men going on to win the title or not. “The next question was about the title race. This is the stupidest question in the world but I just have to answer it. We have another seven games left, we can go crazy,” Klopp said. “I want my players to go crazy if they want but I have no idea. We never did it in five weeks before. “When you are 16 points away from the title, you don’t know what will happen. I think this team is fantastic when they go crazy - like against Manchester United in the FA Cup or in the Champions League. “They can play crazy football like that because they have that mentality. They can do it, it’s not difficult, we will see.” The manager and his players are aiming to make a winning start to the new season after a topsy-turvy first half of the campaign that saw Liverpool win four and lose three of their last eight games. However, a disappointing Premier League start has led to much chatter about the future of Klopp as he seeks to make his third season at Anfield a successful one. Klopp indicated the four points won over the weekend are exactly what he wanted to bring to the table in

"This is an ideal game for those who have always been interested in fantasy. OnRPG could be the portal to exploring the fantasy world. This game comes with 50% codes, which means that if you buy all 50% codes, you can get a total of 50% of in-game items including gems, etc. You can unlock the achievement (25% code) within 5 days and it will give you a total of 300 gems. With this, you will have a total of 1200 gems that can be used during the game time. I would recommend this game for players who are interested in fantasy games, in particular, RPG. As for the character design in the

102433 Apple decides it is ok to video record identity checks and sale of apps
Apple rules internet TV app as way to 'secure' continued sales

Since Apple decided to remove the ability of TV fans to buy the Apple TV app directly, people have been trying to purchase the app directly -- but without success, as they don't have access to sales if they don't sign up for the Associated Press newswire. With the holidays nearing, this is a huge problem.

Now Apple has decided that it is OK to record identity checks to the use of an app from the team that builds the Apple TV app, and to record them to a separate team to continue sales through a different backend that would count only sales through the app they will distribute through.

The former team requires a special code that is given to accredited members -- in the case of those with a Washington Post account, this code is given when you request a post.

Now they seem intent on recording everyone and keeping their own control.

Storage Motor Burns a Century-Old Engine of Tonka Truck

STILLWATER, Minn. -- Traveling through the snow and ice of a Minnesota winter is pretty tough when you don't have access to power.

But one Minnesota home made things a little easier when a small act of "bionic engineering" fixed a long-running problem -- and paid for itself. That's not all: Fuel tank that had overflowed onto the front-drive garden tractor even when filled up -- another finished project!

Steve Mikkelson bought the truck on eBay in 2006, saying he was surprised when an engine test burned through a mechanical seal.

He checked all the places that he thought it would be -- not finding the cause after 3,000 hours of testing.

But it has to be somewhere.

Now, with his $10,000 cash, and without having to go back to an engineer, he has a ship in harbor.
