on the Atlantic Ocean and surrounded by five Coast Guard Units, MSC L'Arlitti provides a unique maritime environment. The ability to stay true to the engine room and the crew's traditions of excellence is a shared effort to provide a first class experience for guests and crew alike. The stunning views and weather-less conditions of the Mediterranean are shared with guests in this beautiful yacht. The ambience is classic, with a beautifully renovated interior, including large guest rooms, private state rooms and a spacious air-conditioned aft galley. Each unit has a private balcony overlooking the port and a large terrace with magnificent views. Civilian Defense volunteer serving as an artillery observer for the IDF. Mates with his partner having been forced to evacuate the city of Hamas. Fully covering the first night in Gaza. A voiceover that recalls Operation Cast Lead, where the Israeli Defense Forces killed more than 1,400, most of them noncombatants. Covering IDF operations that have no precedent in the annals of warfare. Maintaining operational secrecy. After ten days in the Gaza Strip, covering IDF operations designed to clear the area of rockets, bombs and explosive materials, this correspondent returned to his home for the first time in a year. Reporting in Israel during Operation Protective Edge in the Gaza Strip – its third such operation in four years – required skill and bravery. Many of
