In the wake of the recent NCAA inquiry into the New York State athletic program, University of Pittsburgh athletic director Steve Pederson provided his impressions of the size of the probe by a Wall Street Journal reporter. Based on that interaction, the former Mount Lebanon High School and Penn State-Albion assistant coach and current Pittsburgh administrator was curious why the Journal had not put the story on its own website. "Every story you're going to read about this, it's going to be on the WSJ website," Pederson told the reporter, according to a copy of the discussion provided to the Observer. "We're part of
