What's new:

The Spook Inspectors, also known as American Ransom Gang, are an American serial killer trio made up of Eric Christensen, George Weber and David Joost. Their crimes are centered around hostage takings targeting individuals whom they believe to have "witches" inside their bodies. These witches are often labeled as rapists, parasites, or both. Their victims are often tortured and mutilated in order to find out the location of their witches. Often, victims are committed suicides or are found dead because of decapitation and mutilation. In 2009, Weber made headlines for his role in a series of murders in Germany that claimed 20 lives. Investigations in the cases of the American Spook Inspectors have been requested by various states in the United States. All three are serving life sentences for their crimes. Members David Joost: Biography David Joost was born February 7, 1977, in Miami, Florida. Joost has a twin brother, Matthew, and is of Greek descent. He grew up in Coral Gables and is the son of an immigration attorney. Joost has expressed that he was a rebellious child and that his parents were unloving and never set the proper example at home. His parents divorced when he was five and his mother remarried when he was nine years old. Joost is a heavy cocaine user. In 1996, he dropped out of school after skipping classes and started shooting up with other people whom he was with. As a consequence, he was sent to juvenile hall until 1998. He was jailed again in January 2000, after breaking into a house and stabbing and beating a woman who was inside. Two of Joost's victims were John and Angela Friedman, the husband and wife. John was stabbed and Angela was sliced in the neck with a knife. He was also charged with burglary, larceny, battery, and carrying a concealed weapon. In 2001, he was serving part of a 26-year sentence for armed robbery. On March 8, 2001, he was taken into custody for two counts of attempted murder. He was then charged with mayhem, battery with a deadly weapon, and attempted murder. In 2003, he was sentenced to life imprisonment. He is currently incarcerated at medium security Central State Correctional Facility in Indiana. George Weber: Biography George Weber was born on June 9, 1978, in Seligman, Nebraska. He is an only child. His parents moved to Arizona and later to El
