The IIB/CIBER champions the advancement of international business education in the Rocky Mountain region through the RMCIBER Network, a consortium co-led by CU Denver and BYU CIBERs of 80+ schools, community colleges, and minority-serving institutions in 10 regional states. We request faculty and students please adhere to social distancing. We are making every effort to balance the need to have the training and to improve the training experience. General announcements will be sent out on all of the IVMTBA Committees and Forums, on the CIBER Facebook and Twitter, and be emailed to CIBER LSEs, individuals interested in applying, the IIB/CIBER Advisory Group, etc. It is with great pleasure to welcome you to the 8th RMCIBER Research and Community Viewing of CIBER—the Center for International Business Education Research and Training. We are so glad to have you with us. You have every reason to be proud of the pioneering spirit and outstanding work of this great institution! CU Denver students, alumni, and faculty interested in CIBER are welcome to get in touch with the CIBER team. It is a great time to be involved in this dynamic consortium; we hope you will consider becoming a part of it and work with us to develop the next generation of leaders! CIBER is pleased to introduce a variety of new CIBER Media websites that enable faculty, students, alumni, parents, and the public to easily view CIBER publications. Our websites are updated regularly as the availability of new publications changes. Please note that these websites are specifically designed for the purpose of accessing CIBER publications and supporting the CIBER libraries. CIBER Media websites do not provide live streaming or course viewing and therefore, are not appropriate for these purposes. If you would like to apply CIBER Media websites to these purposes please contact the CIBER website developer directly.
